

The Anderson Law Firm's

Traffic Wreck Glovebox Cheat Sheet

Print out this cheat sheet and keep a copy in your vehicle to gather essential information whenever you are involved in a crash with another vehicle.

Anytime that you are in an accident, ALWAYS do the following:

1. Call the police and request that they complete a crash scene report
2. Collect the other driver's information on the form below
3. Take photos of the collision scene and any damage to both vehicles
4. Promptly seek medical attention if you are injured
5. Notify your own insurance company that you have been in a wreck
6. Consult an injury attorney if you are considering making a claim for compensation

Use the form below to gather the essential information from other drivers involved in the collision. (Don't expose yourself to the risk of identity theft! This is the only information that you need to provide to other motorists!)

1. Driver's Name: _____

2. Insurance Provider: _____

3. Insurance Company's Phone Number: _____

4. Insurance Policy Number: _____

5. Vehicle Make and Model: _____

6. License Plate Number: _____

7. Note any damage to either vehicle: _____
